

K-Love and Air One provide a very valuable service to our community. The music and ministry provided by these stations provide a healthy alternative to my children and myself. It would be a great loss to our community to lose one of these stations. The music and information provided is positive and encouraging, which is so lacking in so many other radio stations. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.